"Walk - Don't Walk"

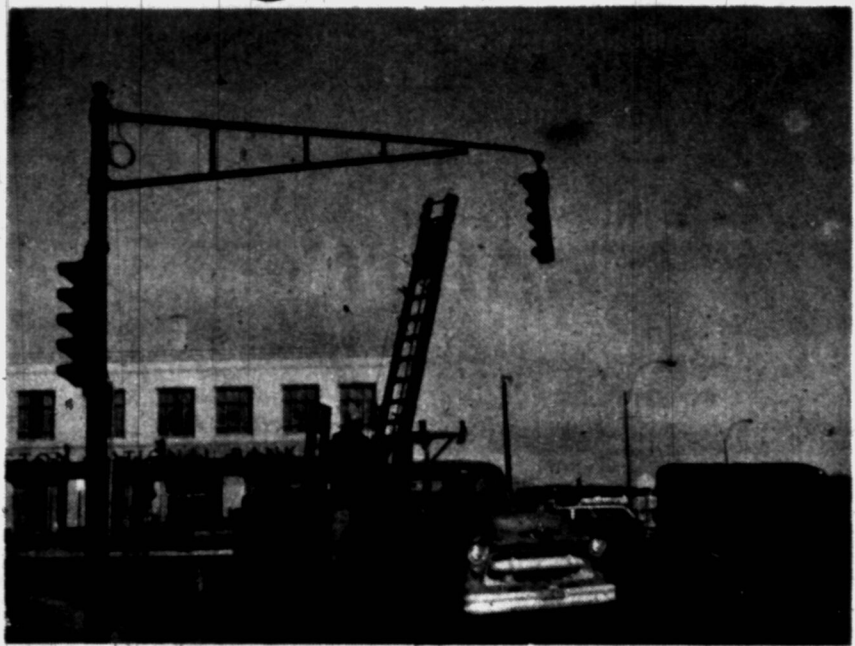

New Traffic Signals Here

The traffic light signals on Mass. ave. from Mill st. to Franklin st. have been converted to WALK and DON'T WALK in the pedestrian period, from the "Red and Yellow" cycle.

Certain changes have also been made in the manner of pedestrian use of the traffic lights as required by the State Department of Public Works. Pre-timed or automatic pedestrian cycles are now converted to the push-button type.

Sgt. Arthur Guarente, Safety Officer explains that "a pedestrian that desires to cross Mass. ave. at Medford st., or at any other new traffic location, must be aware of the following procedure: Push the pedestrian button ONCE and

Interesting Amendments

Seven amendments to the Town by-laws have been inserted on the Town Warrant for the 1966 Annual Town Meeting.

Briefly they cover the following:

Article 16 would request that all dogs be kept on a leash of six feet long and kept on their own property.

Article 17 calls for Town Meeting members to sign in and out at Town Meeting.

Under Article 18, all Town Meeting members would be seated by precinct.

Under Article 19 the oral reading of Town Meeting articles would be eliminated by simple majority of those present and voting at Town Meeting.

Under Article 20 the number of Town Meeting members would be increased by changing the number of members at large as follows:

Town Manager, Chairman of the Personnel Board, Chairman of the Finance Committee, each member of the Board of Selectmen; each member of the Board of Assessors; each member of the School Committee; each elected member of the Housing Authority and each member of the State Legislature residing in Arlington.

Article 21 would call for the Selectmen to meet with the local Legislators once a month and Article 21 calls for the establishment of a Fair Tax Commission in Arlington.

Arlington Town Meeting members will act on one of the smallest Warrants in many years when it convenes on the twenty-first of March for the first session.

Included among the articles to be acted on is one for a five percent "across the board" pay hike for Town Employees and another which would "open the door" for requesting plans for an addition to one of three Arlington elementary schools.

A total of $142,000 is requested under Article 6, the raise request article.

Article 53 is the article relative to preliminary plans for an addition to either the Dallin, Locke or Peirce school.

Just what school will finally be "tabbed" as the one for which preliminary plans will be requested will be determined next month.

School officials will, at that time, confer with representatives of the State Building Assistance Commission.

The Personnel Board has inserted five other articles in addition to the five per cent request.

Article 7 requests a five per cent hike for certain Town Employees who received no increase last year because of changes in the classification plan.

Under Article 8, the Board is requesting a change in grade from MCS to AG13 and an appropriation of $399 from April 1 for the Senior Building Custodian at the high school.

Under Article 9, the Board is requesting a change in grade from AG9 to AG11 and an appropriation of $468 for the Veterans' Service Investigator.

The Personnel Board is also requesting four new classifications: Director of Youth Services, Case Worker for Youth Service, Administrative Assistant in the Public Works Dept. and an Electrician.

The final Personnel Board article, Article 11, calls for all employees with five years of service with the Town by June 1 to be eligible for three weeks vacation.

The General Budget article this year is number 25 and an appropriation of eleven and one-half million dollars is requested.

The Planning Board is requesting adoption of articles 58 through 69 and zoning changes are requested under Articles 70 through 73 and articles 75, 76 and 77.

Article 54 request funds for the installation of oil burners at the Junior High East.

Article 56 calls for appropriation of funds for the Historical Committee.

Article 24 requests funds for the improvement of traffic signals and Article 23 would make Chestnut st. a through way.

A complete list of the articles and more details on several of these will appear in next week's issue of this paper.

the school budget at a special meeting of the School Committee, Dec. 29, was referred to the Town Counsel by the School Committee after discussion in executive session Monday night.

The matter was first brought up in open meeting Monday when Committee-woman Doris Cremens questioned the minutes of the Dec. 29 meeting.

Committeeman Carl Allen then noted that there was some doubt in his mind relative to the discussion of salaries for principals when the meeting was called for the purpose of discussing the School Budget with the Finance Committee.

Allen asked the purpose of the meeting.

Chairman Velma Brown answered that it was to go over the budget.

Supt. of Schools Dr. Bert Roens said that he felt the salaries were part of the budget.

Allen said he was still not convinced. He added he favored the raises. He continued by saying that it disturbed him why only a small portion of raises were voted.

Mrs. Cremens agreed with Allen. She said there was no reason to allow the Board to be caught in this "bind" at the last minute. She said she hoped it could be avoided another time. She then added she hoped it could be discussed in executive session.

Dr. Carter then asked Mrs. Cremens why she didn't mention the matter before.

Mrs. Porteus said she felt the discussion was out of order at this point. She made a motion for executive session.

Committeeman Charles Brenneke then asked what

Discipline Better

Housemaster Plan "Fine"

The House Master Plan at Arlington high school is working out very well, according to the four Housemasters named before the start of the present school year and the Principal of Arlington high.

Dr. Bert Roens emphasized that the situation was not all "hearts and flowers". But he did state that generally conditions were greatly improved over what they were last year.

Principal Raymond Locke went over the list of rules and regulations set up last spring which would hopefully, if put into operation help solve the discipline problem at the high school.

Senior Class Housemaster Mrs. Agnes Bray read a general report of the Housemaster system and emphasized how this new operation seemed to offer an opportunity for better communication between students and faculty.

Each of the other Housemasters, George Fusco, freshman class; George Lowder, sophomore class and George Lincoln, junior class "went along" with Mrs. Bray on this point, listing how the number of problem students had decreased in the past year.

Mrs. Bray called the senior class phenomenal. She noted that smoking in the sanitaries (a problem which was discussed in great detail last spring) has all but been eliminated.

Principal Locke noted that juvenile officers from the police department make fewer trips to the school than previously.

I. D. Cards Get Officials O K

The Arlington School Committee approved the use of identification cards in local schools at the meeting held Monday night.

School Committee member Carl Allen motioned that the use of the cards be approved, providing the school administration could handle the operation.

Dr. Bert Roens in conversation with this reporter emphasized that the use of the cards would be of only little value to the school, but would be valuable in connection with dances and other functions held in the community.

Roens stated that nothing has been planned as yet as to how the cards would appear. He noted that the matter would now be discussed with the Arlington Citizens for Youth Group.

24-HOUR TOWING

THE Observer

Politics may be the choice tid-bits which some readers like to read about in newspaper columns during the late winter months as candidates prepare themselves for the big battle come March, but for this issue the Observer wants to hash over a bit of observing he did Monday morning of this week.

Rules and regulations are fine and we should all obey the law, but let's organize properly before starting.

As most of you by this time know, intersections with lights in Arlington must be completely overhauled by this year. At least this was the year listed some several years back as the date when towns and cities must comply.

Arlington has had the controversial lights at the Pleasant-Mass. ave.-Mystic intersection for some time now, and the complaints, at least to this writer, about those stupid lights, etc. and etc. with unprintable language have been many over a long period of time.

In recent days the big changeover has been taking place. The Pleasant st. lights have been "corrected" — no the word must be "reorganized" as have other lights throughout the town.

No one is going to be happy with everything, but let's face it, those "things" at Medford st. - Mass. ave. and Broadway "take the cake."

Could be they will work out fine over a long period of time.

But for initial impact, few changes have created more discontent and confusion than these new lights in their first few hours of creation.

The walk-don't walk lights at Pleasant st. were automatic. At Medford st., the pedestrian must push a button to activate the lights to the "walk" sign.

At the same time, after but nine seconds, and watching, it seemed more like four or five, the "walk" signals changes to a red flashing "don't walk."

This writer spent some 20 minutes at this intersection Monday morning with the following results:

Most of the pedestrians came to the edge of the sidewalk, saw the "don't walk" lights and stopped. They waited and waited. Nothing happened.

Finally, someone, possibly a pedestrian who had been "through the maze earlier" pushed the button.

"Walkers" heading from the easterly corner of Medford across Broadway and thence across Mass. ave. reached no more than two thirds of the way across Broadway when the "walk" changed to a blinking "don't walk."

What do they do then? Their destination is the southerly side of Mass. ave.

I can't answer this question.

But from here, everyone is going to be mighty confused for a while.

Retracing our remarks — the changeover from "walk" to blinking before getting across the street may attract attention, but what does it do to someone who uses the area only occasionally, especially an older person?

He may start to run, suddenly back-up or just freeze in the middle of the road — completely confused.

In the first place, this operation should have been somewhat explained — somewhere — somehow — in the press — through the schools — by big signs on the light poles — and in advance.

But no, suddenly the change was there and no one knew what to do about it.

—And getting to specifics — why not a blinking "walk" instead of a blinking "don't walk"?

People are funny sometimes. They believe what they read

Talk Around Town

As the days lengthen, the cold strengthens or so it is said, but it also must be about time for that good old January thaw.

Two Arlington residents, members of the M.D.C. police have recently completed "keep sharp" courses on the latest developments in law-enforcement.

Included are Eugene H. Rodley, 24 Magnolia st. and Andrew J. Roche, 94 Quincy st.

Fire Control Technician Third Class Richard F. Ahlberg, USN, son of Mrs. Esther Ahlberg, 229 Highland ave., is back on station in the Western Pacific aboard the frigate USS John S. McCain, following a two-week visit to Sasebo, Japan.

Three Arlington youngsters will take part in a public recital, Jan. 23, at Jordan Hall. All are students with the New England Conservatory Prep program and members of the New England Youth Chamber Orchestra and the New England Youth Chamber Singers.

Included are Peggy Gonyea, 31 Linden st.; Karl Baldwin, 94 Alpine st. and Jane Stein, 274 Park ave.

Michael F. Mee, 24 Richardson ave., is among the 174 Bentley college students who recently achieved Dean's List honors for the past semester.

Howard D. Lovering Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard D. Lovering Sr., 154 Washington st., was among the seven Norwich U. cadets recently awarded gold "Gallon Donor" pins. The pins were awarded for their donations totaling up to a gallon of blood each over their years at the military college.

Joseph Kelber, 23 Alfred rd., has been named to the Dean's Honor List for outstanding scholastic achievement during the past semester at Northeast Tech. He is a major in Industrial Electronics.

Lt. Daniel S. Howard, 15 Moccasin path is among the members of the U.S. Naval Reserve Composite Company and do just what it says to do, blinking or otherwise.

—And finally, why not a longer period to walk?

Maybe the entire process will work out perfectly. Maybe we'll be digesting all these words in a month or so — in fact I wouldn't mind that at all if something had been accomplished.

But as of early this week, all the Observer could see was a mass of "organized confusion" with Arlington pedestrians seemingly once again walking on a "testing ground."

Editorials

A Good Group

How many meetings, hearings, etc. and etc. does the weekly newspaper editor or reporter attend during his lifetime?

How many residents of a community does he meet during five or ten years, and how many does he get to know?

But most important of all, how many persons at these meetings or hearings seeking action of one sort or another in the community, is looking out for the best interests of the community?

The average reporter gets to talk to many residents of the community in which he works, even in a short period of time — a year or more. Yet, amazingly, and unfortunately, most of the men and women he comes in contact with, either at meetings or individually, are seeking something which will benefit only themselves or their area or their group, but seldom their town.

They often feel hurt or ignored if the newspaper doesn't immediately jump into the breach and take their side on any issue.

The paper is worthless, a so-called "rag" which serves only a certain group, if the writer does not take their side of the issue.

If politics receive skimpy coverage, then those interested in politics hold that the paper is not doing its job, and why is it paying so much attention to the socials, teas and parties.

If the reporter or editor reverses his field and tries to satisfy the political reader, most likely he will cut down on some other subject — possibly sports — then the sports-minded become irritated — and so on.

—And so it goes. Wouldn't it be so wonderful, if one and all couldn't be a bit more interested in the life and problems of the neighbor next door, or of the group in the east side of town?

Wouldn't we truly be a "good group" then.

The Tangled Sled

We know "Boys will be Boys" and most likely "Girls-Girls", but sometimes it is to be wondered if the dangers and chances taken in acting as such are worth the net results.

I was young once, and so were you, and we must remember how we looked for the first big snowfall of the year; how we grabbed sleds and skis and bits of cardboard when the first flake began to fall, anticipating a place to slide — at long last.

But, we also wonder if in those days, the number of cars, bikes, scooters, trucks, etc. weren't far fewer than they are in this day and age.

When we skidded off the side of a hall onto a roadway, our chances of getting hit and maimed or killed by an onrushing motorist of one type or another was not near as great.

Thus, though we sympathize with all these youngsters of today with their saucers, sleds, etc., which have been hardly used for the past two years because of a scarcity of snow, we must almost screech out a warning to be careful when and where to operate these pieces of "fun" equipment.

Youngsters tend to gravitate to the nearest location where things are slippery, whether this be a wide open hill where there appears to be no danger what-so-ever; a steep snow bank at the side of the road or at the edge of a recently ploughed lot or of a seemingly little traveled roadway, or even on a well-traveled roadway which might have ice or snow cover on the sides.

Parents of Arlington who, now-not of these temptations for the young, or turn their back on them, if they do know they exist should be told of the hard, cold facts, that there is no more unhappy sight than that of a mother leaning over the lifeless form of her little boy as a police officer places that blanket over his face, or of the father, with tears sliding down his cheek gently lifting the battered body of his little daughter off the tangled mess which once was a Christmas sled.

1-25 recently honored as winners of the 1965 First Naval District Commandant's trophy for highest efficiency. There are 22 men in the officer group.

Mr. Keenan recently received word of his appointment in a letter for N. C. Flanagan, chairman of the Chicago-based group of insurance companies.

A one-week "keep sharp" course for Metropolitan District Police on the latest developments in law-enforcement has been completed by two MDC officers from Arlington, Eugene H. Rodley, 24 Magnolia st. and Andrew J. Roche, 94 Quincy st.

Babson Discusses

YOUNG BLOOD PROMISING
NEW UNION POWER

Exclusive News Feature

Babson Park, Mass., January 20. For at least a decade the labor movement has been almost static. Organizing drives have been half-hearted, and their results have been slight. Scandals of various sorts within some of the biggest unions have been widely aired. There has been an underlying incompatibility between the conservative craft-union men of the AFL-CIO and the more ambitious "vertical" unionists that re-entered the Federation after years of separation.

NEW VITALITY SLOWLY EMERGING

Over the past year or so, however, there have been changes brewing beneath the surface. Younger men have been moving ahead in the hierarchy of labor leaders, and they have begun to displace some of the old-timers. In brief, there is a new pulse beating within the body of organized labor. Walter Reuther, who has been holding together his 6,000,000 members of the Industrial Union Department of the AFL-CIO for the past ten years, is getting restless within the confines of the basically unventuresome Federation.

Reuther is beginning to speak once more with a loud voice. He is pointing out that there are still some 15,000,000 unorganized workers who could readily be brought within union bounds. His declared objective is to bring in what he calls the "working poor", even if they have to be given membership without contributing any dues payments. What this would amount to would be adapting the Great Society concepts to the unions . . . bringing up substandard wages and gaining fringe benefits — such as health and death insurance, pensions, unemployment and severance pay, etc. — for those not now covered.

OLD SCHISMS BEING BRIDGED

The sort of vibrancy that Reuther and some of his younger followers create can be very catching. Even many of those unionists who have felt that labor's days of growth were largely over are being stirred anew. The stand-off between AFL-CIO President George Meany and the far more revolutionary Walter Reuther seems to be closing. Union members have long recognized that Reuther has his eye on the presidency of the Federation, when the day comes that Meany must step down from his top office.

Some 1,500,000 teamsters, who have been going their separate way under the direction of controversial James Hoffa, may be back within the Federation fold before too long. Mr. Hoffa appears to be heading for jail, indicted on some of the numerous charges that have been brought against him. His successors are more than likely to accept an invitation to remerge with the AFL-CIO once the Teamsters Union is rid of the forces that originally caused it to be cast out of the Federation. Readers may expect Reuther and his cohorts to take every possible step to cement all of the major union units together. Jurisdictions will be clarified, and jurisdictional strife will gradually become old-hat.

WHAT THIS MEANS TO MANAGEMENT

Employers in most areas and practically all industries will feel the impact of this emerging rebirth of union determination and vigor. Organizing drives will be hot and heavy, no longer half-hearted. Young blood will be encouraged for leadership at all levels, with particular concentration on men (and women) of outstanding intelligence and resourcefulness. Leaders and candidates for union positions, will be trained and educated in bargaining tactics, statistical analyses, oratory and debate, and human psychology.

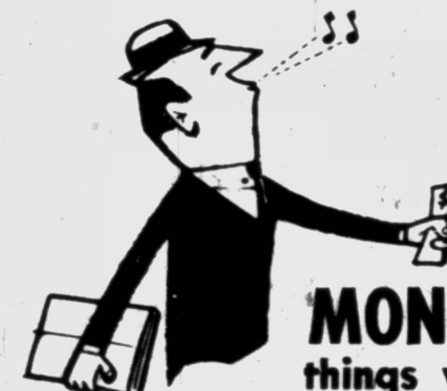

There will be drives for wages and fringe concessions along a steadily broadening front. Employers in relatively low-wage localities must look for organizing drives even in smaller companies. Concerns already unionized will be confronted with new demands in terms of pay, hours, health and death benefits, vacations, working conditions, and a roster of other items. This does not mean that management need be hit today, or even tomorrow. But it does mean that the trend toward tougher bargaining (look at the New York transit strike), new demands, and more forceful organizing campaigns is already developing.

Sports Sidelines

We often wonder what the unknown new football fan thinks when he hears some of the expressions used in the game today.

Just for example: The All-Stars finally "got on" the scoreboard.

He's running a "down and out" pattern.

The quarterback "picked up" ten yards on that play.

The quarterback was caught in a blitz.

Is this a sign of things to come?

Arlington high's junior varsity hockey team dropped a 4-2 verdict to the Melrose J.V.'s at Hockeystown last week. Recently, the Arlington soph and juniors were edged out in an exhibition tilt.

Dan Diskin and Pete Mitchell scored early goals for the locals, but two markers in the final canto gave the home team the victory.

The J.V.'s fared better against Belmont Hill in another contest as they came from behind to win 6-3 after trailing 2-0 early in the game.

Dan Diskin, Billy Shea and Tim Russell scored in the opening period for Arlington with Diskin adding another in the second period.

Mitchell and Corkery added spice to the Arlington cake in the final period.

Another Arlington boy is Harvard bound. John Deveau, captain of the A.H.S. football and hockey teams has accepted a Harvard scholarship. Brother Ron starred for Tufts.

—And Dan Diskin, who is a busy boy scored two goals for the St. Agnes Clippers Sunday a.m. as the local club bombed St. Mary's of Winchester 6-0 at McHugh Forum.

Nigro, Wright, Guiney and Dwyer also added goals for the winners.

The Arlington high frosh hockey team also chalked up a shutout last Saturday morning, blanking the B.C.H. frosh 8-0. Quinlan and Davidson tallied a pair of markers for the winners, while Corbett, Byrne, Hamilton and Johnny Lyons each added one.

Once again Tommy Spengler put on a great show as he finished second in the B.A.A. schoolboy mile, losing out by four seconds to Norris of Brockton. These two boys, along with Art Dulong are perhaps the three top schoolboy runners in the state today.

Tommy's time was 4:26.5.

Billy Shea scored two goals and Donny Coleman one as Arlington Catholic's hockey team came from behind to defeat Xaverian 3-2 at the Arena, Sunday.

The win moved Catholic four points ahead of the Westwood team in the Catholic loop and also kept them close on the heels of league-leading Matignon and second place Xavier.

Matignon blasted Sacred Heart 9-0, while Xavier romped over Newman 11-1.

In the other game in this league, Austin Prep beat Cathedral 5-2.

King and Hehir moved Xaverian out front 2-0 with goals in the first period and early in the second.

However, Shea tallied from Coleman just before the end of the stanza, and the same two tied the score at 4:33 of the final canto.

Coleman scored the winning marker late in the period with Shea being credited with an assist.

The Second Round of the Youth Hockey Program, sponsored by the Arlington Park and Recreation Department featured four closely played games as the boys are becoming acclimated to the rink surface and boards.

The Bantam Rangers remained undefeated, but were tied by a scrappy Canadiens team, 1-1. Both netminders, Frank Agostino for the Canadiens, and Ron Crescentini for the Rangers, turned aside several scoring bids.

John Renauro opened the scoring with a blast that caught the top right corner, after a solo dash, to give the Canadiens the lead. Michael Jones, set up by Michael Keane, notched the score at 1-1 for the Rangers.

The Bantam Red Wings scored their first win of the season, as they outskated the Maroons, 2-0. Mike Bilozur sparked in the Red Wing nets, coming up with several saves on point blank shots. Steve Magliano put the Red Wings ahead on an unassisted goal, and diminutive Maurie Corkery got the clincher on a nice feed from Peter Noonan.

In Pee Wee action, the Rockets notched their second win, 2-0 over the Bruins. Jack Repetto scored the first goal, his third of the young season and Billy Dwyer, assisted by Herb Rikeman, sewed it up in the final minutes. Goalie Richie Amico turned aside all Bruins' threats to gain the shutout. The Blackhawks scored their first win, 3-1. After the Maple Leafs opened the scor-

Director of Programming for the President's Council on Fitness, Glenn Swengros chats with local Boys' Club Director "Bud" Faulkner prior to demonstration session at Boys' Clubs of America National Convention.

In a release to this newspaper this week, Executive Director "Bud" Faulkner of the Arlington Boys' Club stated "Beginning with the Eisenhower Administration, even more emphatically emphasized by President Kennedy and with the present focus on fitness programs relating to children, there has been great strides in the improvement of the physical stature of our youth."

"It is my privilege to serve as the chairman of the Boys' Clubs of America, National Committee on Health and Physical Education. During my tenure, I have had the opportunity to work in conjunction with Mr. Glenn Swengros, Program Director of the President's Council on Fitness and others. At our meetings, a frequent discussion relates to the improvement of the physical ability of the children across the nation. This is attributed, in the main, to step up physical education programs in schools and private agencies throughout the country."

"But, what about the adult population?" Faulkner went on to say. "It is a known fact that the adult who participates, at least once a week, in a gym, swim to stay slim program, benefits and achieves in many ways he loses the flabby tissue, he is not tired and depressed all the time, he is more alert, has more pep and vitality."

Faulkner concluded "Vitamins are wonderful and necessary in many situations, but for over-all total fitness, the adult would be wise to engage in our adult physical fitness program at the Boys' Club."

Homemakers to career women alike, enjoy the adult women's program on Monday evenings from 8 to 9:30 p.m. or Tuesday mornings from 10 to 11:30 a.m. Instructors are Mrs. Nancy Kerr and Mrs. Myra Van Fleet.

Technicians, professionals, laborers and businessmen enjoy the men's fitness program on Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 8:45 to 10 p.m. Physical Director Bill Sullivan and Aquatic Director, Don Frye supervise.

The cost for these Boys' Club activities is minimal — a few pennies for each session for an annual membership or you must pay a guest fee.

Coach Eddie Burn's undefeated hockey team moved into undisputed possession of first place in the Suburban League as A.H.S. blanked Rindge 7-0 as Newton was tied by Waltham.

Four goals in the first period, the first by Glen Hale unassisted, one by Tom Walsh with an assist from Costa, the third by Capt. John Deveau with the assist going to Steve Donnelly and the last goal of the period by Bob Havern with Deveau and Donnelly picking up assists.

This was the first of three goals Bob scored in the game. Havern scored his second goal of the hat trick in the second period and Tom Walsh had the other second period tally. Havern's final goal came in the final period. Steve Donnelly was the game's leading play maker with three assists for the day.

Bob Havern who is playing center for the first line is leading the league in scoring with 17 points, 10 goals and 7 assists. Arlington's second line of Hale, Costa and Walsh has been getting its share of goals and is one of the reasons that Arlington has 6 wins and no losses.

The great defensive play of Jim Smith, Pete Morse, Bob Bartholomew, and John Byrne held the Rindge team to less than 10 shots on goal Don Apprille.

It was only the great work in goal by Tom Jennings of Rindge that kept the score as low as it was. Tom had 23 saves in the first period and a total of 49 for the afternoon.

Arlington and undefeated Newton (once tied) play the big game Wednesday. A win for Arlington would put the local team 3 points out front but a loss would place them a point behind in second place. Newton was tied by third place Waltham Saturday and will be out to upset Arlington.

A.C.H.S. Hoopsters Lose Two

Arlington Catholic high school's basketball team fell from a tie for second to fifth place as it suffered two losses over the weekend.

St. Mary's of Waltham, without a win to its credit, handed the locals a 59-49 set back at the Kennedy Junior High gym, while on Sunday afternoon, Don Bosco edged the Arlington team in a close contest 53-51 at the St. Agnes gym.

Fred Martucci paced the Arlington attack in the St. Mary's contest, while Steve Dooley with 10 points and Titiliah and Regan with nine each were the top scorers for the losers in the Don Bosco tilt.

Metcalfe and Eddy, engineers of Boston, New York, Palo Alto and San Francisco, have announced the admission of Ariel A. Thomas to partnership in the firm as of Jan. 1, 1966.

Thomas is a native of Woonsocket, R.I. He received his B.S. degree in civil engineering from Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and his M.S. in sanitary engineering from the University of Illinois. He served as a major in the United States Army Sanitary Corps during World War II. He served as an assistant professor of Sanitary Engineering at M.I.T., and as an assistant basin engineer with the United States Public Health Service.

He joined Metcalfe and Eddy in 1948, served as a project manager, and has been a senior associate of the firm since 1961.

He is a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers, National Society of Professional Engineers, American Water Works Ass'n, Boston Society of Civil Engineers, New England Water Pollution Control Ass'n, New Jersey Water Pollution Control registered professional engineer in three states, and makes his home in Arlington.

To the editor:

I wish to take this opportunity, through your newspaper to announce my candidacy for the existing vacancy on the Housing Authority. This vacancy was created by the recent resignation of a member of the Authority.

I feel that my business and personal background has specially prepared me for this office. In my more than 20 years of business experience, I have served as president of four corporations, encompassing such fields as real estate, insurance, investment management, and appraising.

One of my business experiences has afforded me the opportunity to manage an off-campus dormitory for Boston College. My part in the management of this complex of 5 apartments that house and feed over 400 students, closely parallels the duties and responsibilities of the elective office that I now seek.

In the course of my business career, I have had broad experience in the field of land development. I have also worked in the capacity of advertising account executive for more than six years.

My high school education at Cambridge High and Latin was interrupted by military service at the end of World War II. After completion of my tour of duty, I completed my education at Berkeley Prep, and Boston University.

I am married to the former Beverly Miller of Arlington and I have five children. I reside at 3 Stevens Terrace, and I am a Town Meeting Member from Percinct 10. In the years of 1961 and 1962, I served in an advisory capacity for the Cerebral Palsy campaign in the Greater Boston area.

As a local businessman who has been active in political and civic affairs, I offer my qualifications for your consideration. I ask the support of all interested citizens. The Senior Citizen and Veteran housing units, which are managed by the Arlington Housing Authority, require the direction of a person with a background in business and human relations.

I have planned an active campaign, and I shall seek the advice, as well as the support, of the voters of Arlington.

Most sincerely,
Paul E. Cantrell

The League of Women Voters of Arlington urges Arlington residents to reserve the evening of Thursday, Feb. 24, for the League's annual Candidate's Night in the Lowe auditorium of the High School at 8 p.m.

Candidates seeking election to major office at the March 5th Town Election will be heard and questioned at this non-partisan meeting.

Donald E. Nickerson, president of the board of trustees of Symmes hospital, announced at a committee luncheon held on Friday, Jan. 7, at the hospital, that the Eye room donated by the Lexington Lions club will be ready for use in March of 1966.

Attending the meeting were members of the hospital staff and the Lexington Lions club including Abraham Wise Haskell Reed, William Revis, and Dr. Varant Hazopian.

The Eye Room will be the first in this locality to provide complete facilities for the treatment and diagnosis of eye diseases as well as for diagnostic aid in the general practice of medicine. It will include a modern slit-lamp camera microscope, a special treatment table, a portable giant ophthalmoscope, and the newest developments in ophthalmic instrumentation.

Robert R. Lovejoy, administrator of Symmes hospital, noted that the Eye Room is expected to be used primarily by the four or more ophthalmologists who practice in Arlington and Lexington.

"The Eye Room will make a welcome addition to the four surgical and two minor surgical rooms now available to the physicians on our staff. We trust that eye surgery will be done here as benefits a true community hospital," Lovejoy stated.

By March 1, all the equipment will have been installed according to William G. Small, purchasing agent of Symmes. The basic equipment will cost in excess of $3,000.00 and will be paid for from the Lexington Lions club's from their July Fourth carnival funds.

Nickerson expressed appreciation to the Lexington Lions club for their help in making possible this addition to the hospital.

"It will fill a long felt need," said Nickerson, "not only for the in-patients of our 167 bed hospital, but also for the outpatient department, both of which serve the rapidly growing population of our community."

How to make more money by taking a small "cut" in your pay

Saving part of your income isn't really like taking a cut in pay, though it might seem like it at first.

It seems a lot less like it when you save U. S. Savings Bonds on the Payroll Savings Plan.

First, the sum you're saving doesn't pass through your hands as cash and tempt you. Secondly, you get the satisfaction of seeing your Bonds stack up to make your actual "take home" pay a lot bigger than you realize.

Remember this, too: all the time your Bonds are working for you, they're helping to make freedom more secure for people throughout the world.

Now join the millions of Americans who have been taking a "pay cut" for years. And are that much the richer for it.

Quick facts about Series E Savings Bonds

- ✓ You get back $4 for every $3 at maturity
- ✓ You can get your money when you need it
- ✓ Your Bonds are replaced free if lost, destroyed or stolen
- ✓ You can buy Bonds where you bank, or on the Payroll Savings Plan where you work

Wanted: someone who can skip rope, catch a ball, climb a tree, swim and play hide-and-seek. Someone like you.

Imagine, if you can, children who don't know—and may never know—how to play.

There are such children. Thousands of them. They're mentally retarded. And unless you help them, they will miss all the joys of games, sports and other activities on which youngsters thrive.

Anyone can help—whether you're a college student, a housewife or someone who's retired. All it takes are patience and a few hours of your time each week.

And what could be more rewarding than helping shy, unsure, unhappy children become friendlier, healthier—even brighter—because you taught them to play?

Large Crowd Turns Out For Variety Show Here

"Those Barbershoppers, they certainly can sing! And they seem to love every minute of it! One of them in the back row, Stan Bates I think they said it is, he seems to be singing to each and everyone in the audience. All smiles and so happy!" This comment was overheard at the conclusion of the Winter Music Festival Variety Show sponsored by the S.P.E.B.-S.Q.S.A. (Barbershoppers) of Arlington to benefit the Arlington Chapter of the Retarded Children's Association.

The show attracted a wonderful audience, including many family groups. Every act drew enthusiastic applause and special thanks are due all those persons who donated so much of their time and talent.

Rex Trailer, star of the WBZ-TV Ch. 4 "Boom Town" Show, a familiar face in every home, was the master of ceremonies. His talents moved the show along very smoothly, evoking merriment many times, and the ecstatic looks on the youngsters' faces in the front rows belied their excitement. Few were Listening to the "St. Agnes Troubadours" was an exciting experience for those who heard them for the first time Saturday night. The handsome youngsters, shining and bright, sang eagerly and enthusiastically. The well trained voices were led ever so confidently by the two little conductors in white. The precision and rhythm of those little elbows from the rear told the audience this was no group of amateurs! Father Paul J. McLaughlin should be congratulated for the wonderful painstaking work he has done with this group.

Instead of issuing plates for two years, and have them last less than one year, they should now be constructed so that they will last five years," he said.

"A further advantage of the new type plates is that, being reflectorized, they can be seen at night," Khachadorian explained. "This will be a big improvement over our present plates which, after rusting, are neither visible day or night."

A long time advocate of permanent and reflectorized number plates for automobiles, Rep. Gregory B. Khachadorian (right) and Robert Mahan (left) of Leominster, Democrat, witness the signing of the Khachadorian proposal into law by Governor John A. Volpe. Mahan is House chairman of the legislative committee on highways and motor vehicles, which reported favorably upon the permanent and reflectorized plate legislation.

"The final enactment of this measure should put an end to all of the automobile number plate problems which have plagued Massachusetts motorists for many long years," Khachadorian declared.

"The permanent and reflectorized plates will not rust and become invisible the way our present number plates do.

Measles can cause mental retardation. Now, for the first time, you can protect your child against measles and its serious complications, with a new vaccine.

You don't think of plain, ordinary measles as a dangerous disease. And, fortunately, it usually isn't. However, sometimes measles causes encephalitis or inflammation of the brain. When this happens, there is a chance of permanent damage to a child's brain.

Today, measles with all its devastating side effects can be completely prevented by a new vaccine. Unprotected children will get measles 95 times out of 100. You got them, didn't you?

Don't take the chance of measles meaning mental retardation for your child. Visit your doctor or clinic. Make sure your child gets the measles vaccine at the earliest time recommended by your doctor.

There are other safeguards against mental retardation. You should know about them. So write for a free booklet to The President's Committee on Mental Retardation, Washington, D.C.
